stuff you need to know

- event starts at 7:00 sharp: please plan on arriving at 6:45
- tax and tip are not included in the $75.00
- space is limited to 36 people and we anticipate a complete sell out. if you are holding a reserved spot and cannot make it please give use 24 hours advance notice so that we may try to fill your slot from the waiting list. if we are not able to fill it, you will be charged for the reservation.
- in the event of inclement weather (a blizzard that closes the roads) or an alien invasion (not probable but possible if you believe in that sort of thing) we will reschedule.

helpful hints:

- it's a lot of food so eat a light lunch
- pace yourself, these beers are "high octane" and you can have as many pours of the stouts as you like.
- have fun!
